

Miraculous Medal Novena

(Said Mondays following daily Mass)

Sign of the Cross

Leader: (+) In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Introduction

All: O Lord Jesus Christ, we have just received you in the Eucharist. We are so very aware that you are with us in a very special way, through the sacrament of your Body and Blood. Dear Lord and Savior, who for the accomplishment of your great works, have chosen the weak of the world, so that no human being may ever glory in your sight; and who for a better and more widely diffused belief in the Immaculate Conception of Mary, your Mother, have wished that the Miraculous Medal be manifested to St. Catherine Laboure, grant that we may be filled with the same true love and humility. Help us to live in our daily lives what we profess and celebrate here today.

Memorare

All: Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, we fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, our Mother. To you we come, before you we stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer us. Amen.

Novena Prayer & Consecration

All: O Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of Jesus, we your loving and trustful children, implore you to obtain the graces and favors we ask, as we pray for those we love and those who are most in need of assistance and healing this day.

(Pause, here, and privately present your prayers and petitions.)

Leader (and All): You know, O Mary, how often we are the sanctuaries of your Son, through our reception of the Holy Eucharist. Help us to leave behind all that is unholy and hateful. Help us to attain that purity of heart, that will attach us to God alone, so that we may attain to that blessed abode, where you are the Queen of Angels and of all humanity.

All: O Virgin Mother of God, we dedicate and consecrate ourselves to you under the title of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. May this medal be for us, a sign of your affection for us, and a reminder of our duties toward you and your Son, Jesus. Keep us close to you every moment of our lives. Grant us the grace of a happy death so that, in union with you, your Son Jesus and all our sisters and brothers, we may enjoy the peace and joy of heaven forever. Amen.

Leader: O Mary conceived without sin (3 times).

All: Pray for us who have recourse to you.

Sign of the Cross

Leader: (+) In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Mother of Perpetual Help

(Said Tuesdays after daily Mass)

Sign of the Cross

Leader: (+) In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Prayer

All: Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been blessed and favored by God. You became not only the Mother of the Redeemer but the Mother of the redeemed as well. We come to you today as your loving children. Watch over us and take care of us. As you held the child Jesus in your loving arms, so take us in your arms. Be a Mother ready at every moment to help us. For God who is mighty has done great things for you, and God's mercy is from age to age on those who love God. Our greatest fear is that, in time of temptation, we may fail to call out to you and become lost children. Intercede for us, dear Mother, in obtaining pardon for our sins, love for Jesus, final perseverance, and the grace always to call upon you, Mother of Perpetual Help.

All: Glorious and wonderful things are said about you, O Virgin Mary. You are the glory and joy of the Christian people. You are the defender of the poor and rejected. You are a safe refuge of the persecuted and a Mother ever ready to help us. Surround us with the radiance of your loving protection and keep us safe from all that would harm us, glorious and powerful Mother of the Redeemer.

Leader: (+) In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Anthony Holding the Child Jesus

All: Blessed Anthony, Jesus was the center of your life. It must be the same for us and for every Christian. Your purity of soul, your humbleness, your simple radiant faith, fits well with the gentle and humble Savior, who came to us as a little child, born of Mary. Help us to be childlike, and to give up our desire for power and control. Keep us from a merely intellectual faith. May we be totally dependent on Jesus as you were, with the loving trust of a little child. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for the Children and the Needy

All: St. Anthony, your love for the infant Jesus, made him present to you to see and hold in your arms. Help us to see and love Jesus, in all the poor and suffering of the world. Move us to clothe, feed and help Jesus, in all unwanted, abused and abandoned children and people. Lead us, for the sake of Jesus, who became a childlike one of us, to reverence and protect all human life, from its beginning to its end. We ask this in the most Holy Name of Jesus. Amen.

Prayer to St. Anthony

All: After you died, St. Anthony, God chose to make your holiness known to the world, and to draw people to himself by working miracles, in answer to prayers made through your intercession. Since then, people have asked God to continue to honor you, by working wonders through your intercession. Those who have experienced the power of prayers, offered through your intercession, have told how God has answered them. God has healed the sick, restored peace of mind, relieved poverty and granted favors of all kinds. We ask you now, St. Anthony, to pray with us for the things we need and desire.

Leader (and All): We pray that God may give us a sign of his loving care and providence, and that through you, God may draw us all to eternity. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

All: Father, we thank you for hearing our prayers, through the intercession of our friend and brother, St. Anthony. Our hearts are filled with gratitude. You called Anthony of Padua to live and preach the Gospel. Help us to live the Gospel as he did. Fill our hearts with love, that we may pursue unselfishly, a sincere love of God and neighbor. May we grow in the call you have given us and be faithful to the commitments we have made. May we imitate the life and work of Anthony and, together with our sisters and brothers, build up your kingdom.

Sign of the Cross

Leader: (+) In the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

St. Anthony of Padua
(1195-1231)

The Gospel call to leave everything and follow Christ was the rule of Anthony's life. Over and over again God called him to something new in his plan. Every time Anthony responded with renewed zeal and self-sacrificing to serve his Lord Jesus more completely.

His journey as the servant of God began as a very young man when he decided to join the Augustinians, giving up a future of wealth and power to be a servant of God. Later, when the bodies of the first Franciscan martyrs went through the town where he was stationed, he was again filled with an intense longing to be one of those closest to Jesus himself: those who die for the Good News.

So, Anthony entered the Franciscan Order and set out to preach to the Moors. But an illness prevented him from achieving his goal. He returned to Italy and was stationed in a small hermitage where he spent most of his time praying, reading the Scriptures and doing menial tasks.

The call of God came again at an ordination where no one was prepared to speak. The humble and obedient Anthony hesitantly accepted the task. The years of searching for Jesus in prayer, of reading sacred Scripture and of serving him in poverty, chastity and obedience had prepared Anthony to allow the Spirit to use his talents. Anthony's sermon was astounding to those who expected an unprepared speech and knew not the Spirit's power to give people words.

Recognized as a great man of prayer and a great Scripture and theology scholar, Anthony became the first friar to teach theology to the other friars. Again, he was called from that post to preach to the heretics, to use his profound knowledge of Scripture and theology to convert and reassure those who had been misled.

In one of his Sermons, Anthony says: "The saints are like the stars. In his providence Christ conceals them in a hidden place that they may not shine before others when they might wish to do so. Yet they are always ready to exchange the quiet of contemplation for the works of mercy as soon as they perceive in their heart the invitation of Christ."

Anthony should be the patron of those who find their lives completely uprooted and set in a new and unexpected direction. Like all saints, he is a perfect example of turning one's life completely over to Christ. God did with Anthony as God pleased-and what God pleased was a life of spiritual power and brilliance that still attracts admiration today. He whom popular devotion has nominated as finder of lost objects found himself by losing himself totally to the providence of God.
